To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Robyn Dombey. Robyn began interning for the sample room and development department just before I was hired as the Development Manager for RTW in September 2013. Robyn assisted in the development of our Pre-Fall 2014 RTW Collection. Her responsibilities included sourcing materials, communicating with vendors, organizing trims, and assisting in the management of the seasonal work flow.

Robyn & I both being new to the company, were both able to learn together and help each other. She has been an absolutely incredible asset to our team during our Pre-Fall 2014 line development. Her hard work was a necessity to our team as last minute changes and deadlines gave way to late nights and many errands. We quickly realized that we could truly depend on her to get any project accomplished that she was given. Robyn was always up for the task whether big (assisting with patterns & design) or small (running an errand, picking up samples). She worked quickly and was never afraid to speak up if she saw something that could be done better. She took initiative in all tasks.

Robyn rose to every challenge she was given, and consistently exceeded expectations. She would be an asset to any employer and I highly recommend her for any endeavor she chooses to pursue. Robyn will truly be missed in our office but I know she is headed in a very positive direction and will only do great things in her future career in the fashion industry. If you have any further questions with regard to her background or qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

GRACE KLICKMAN
